

Green Building Advisory Committee

Status: Dissolved

Created: 4/15/1998

Ended:

Description: The purpose of the Green Building Advisory Committee (GBAC) is to encourage and promote environmentally responsible, healthy, resource and energy-efficient building in Scottsdale. GBAC's focus is to provide green building resources to both Scottsdale citizens and the City organization. GBAC shall be responsible to develop, and provide guidance, on green building program qualification criteria, promotion, education, and special events. GBAC advises Environmental Quality Advisory Board (EQAB) members and City staff on green building technologies, strategies, materials, products and standards of practice.

Notes:

The Green Building Advisory Committee serves as a subcommittee of the Environmental Quality Advisory Board.

EQAB minutes of April 15, 1998 reflect that on suggestion of staff member Anthony Floyd, EQAB voted unanimously to create the Green Building Advisory Committee.

EQAB made initial appointments at their December 16, 1998 meeting; however, the minutes indicate the Board accepted the names on a list which was distributed. The names were not included in the minutes, so the initial appointment information is not available.

Associated Boards: Environmental Quality Advisory Board
